While digging the ditch through Eastwood lake for Senator Hunter, S. P. Williams found what appears to be an almost inexhaustible bed of potter's clay. It is in the bed of the lake, and appears to be of fine quality, and near the surface. Home people should look after this at once, and see what the prospects are for using it.

S. P. Williams has just finished a ditch for Senator Hunter, which is one mile long, starting from the dredge ditch, and running north, through Eastwood Lake. The ditch is ten feet wide. Senator Hunter owns about 1,000 acres of land in this body, and expects to get three or four hundred acres ready for cultivation this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stephens spent Sunday with Fred Hudgens and wife at Stanley, and report a very enjoyable trip, especially the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hudgens, and one of the finest dinners they had partook of in many days. It makes ye editor sick to think about it—a good old country dinner would make us die happy and leave our insurance to our wife.

Well, Well! begosh! Some one has censured the Herald for accepting saloon advertising, etc. Now, suppose you had a store, and a saloon man should come into your store to buy a bill of goods. You would sell to him, to be sure. It is just the same with a newspaper. Our space is our stock in trade; it is for sale; it makes our living, feeds our family and keeps the paper going. We're not working for glory, not by a long shot, but for an honorable living.

We regret to leave out the resolutions of the meeting of the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association, which convened at Hayti last week, but the copy came to us too late. We have repeatedly urged our friends to get copy to us early, especially special articles, as we must have time and adhere closely to system to conduct our business and get the paper out on time.

An exchange says: "In the beginning God created the Heavens and the earth, the editor, then the advertiser—which was all good. The next day it snowed and he created the man who does not believe in advertising and another who does not take the home paper, and then the devil got into the moulding room and created the man who takes the home paper 17 years and fails to pay for it. After he had completed that sorry job and having a few lumps left he created the excuse of the man who settles his subscriptions by instructing his postmaster to mark his paper "refused."—Ex.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wells of Metropolis, Ill. are here visiting Mr. Wells' brother, C. P. Wells, Sr. Sam Wells is the youngest brother out of a family of six children, of whom five were brothers. He is 70 years, old. Only one death has occurred in the family, and that was this year. All five of the boys went through the war, C. P. Wells being the only one on the Confederate side. C. P. Wells came to Missouri in 1858, and has resided here most of the time since, except during the war, and while surveying on what is now the Southern Pacific Railroad through the west and Calif.

Sheriff's Sale Under Special Execution.

By virtue and authority of a special execution issued from the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Pemiscot county, Missouri, returnable to the November term, 1909, of said court, and to me, the undersigned sheriff of Pemiscot county, Missouri, directed and dated the 21st day of September, 1909, and to me delivered the 21st day of September, 1909, wherein J. E. Adams is plaintiff, and O. C. Ashby defendant, I have levied upon and seized all the right, title, claim and interest of the said O. C. Ashby in and to the following described real estate, lying, being and situate in the County of Pemiscot, and State of Missouri, particularly described as follows, to-wit: The southwest quarter of the southwest quarter, and the south half of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 33 in township 19 range 12 east, and the east half of the east half of the southeast quarter of section 32 in township 19 range 12 east, containing one hundred acres, more or less.

And I will on Friday, December 3, 1909, between the hours of nine o'clock in forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the front door of the court house, in the City of Caruthersville, Pemiscot county, Missouri, and during the session of the Circuit Court of said county, expose for sale, at public auction for cash in hand, to the highest bidder, all the right, title, claim and interests of the above-named defendant, O. C. Ashby, in and to the above described real estate, or so much thereof as will satisfy said execution and costs.

J. A. FRANKLIN, Sheriff of Pemiscot County, Missouri.

Do You Think More of Your Finances than You do of Your Family?

You insure your house and your barn, why not insure your life? You realize what a misfortune it would be if your property were totally destroyed and you had to suffer the entire financial loss. It would be a loss you could ill afford, and perhaps it would be impossible for you to continue in your present mode of living if you were deprived of this valuable possession.

Why then do you not realize that a misfortune it would be to your family should THEIR valuable property—YOURSELF, their breadwinner—be destroyed? Should death claim you—and it WILL, sooner or later, maybe sooner—your loss would be one your family could ill afford to suffer—perhaps your children would fail to get an education, perhaps your wife would go to the wash tub, perhaps your property would be sacrificed to pay a debt—YOU are your family's most valuable possession, and YOU haven't a guarantee that you are going to live a day.

of course YOU don't expect to die for a long, long time. Most healthy people count on living indefinitely. Still, "you can never tell." If, and don't you forget the "if," you SHOULD die, then your home and family would be threatened, because their money-earner wouldn't be there to protect them.

Life is uncertain, but life insurance makes uncertainties CERTAIN. Old line life insurance is not only good if you die, but it is good if you live. Ever think of it that way? It's a fact. You can't take out fire insurance, so you will receive any of your money back unless your property is destroyed; but you can take out a life insurance policy which will entitle you to the return not only of a portion of the money you put in, but all of it back. WHETHER YOU DIE OR NOT. It is better than a saving bank, because your money is there for you and you get your life insurance extra, free.

This is the kind of insurance YOU ought to have and the kind I have for you. If you will drop me a postal card I will gladly tell you all about it. Do it now. Don't wait until tomorrow. YOU may be dead then, and dead people are worthless to themselves, their families and everybody. Today, now, is only yours.

C. S. Yeak, Caruthersville, Mo.
